NOTES: We raised this horse and he has always been one we really liked. He was super easy to train and wants to please all the time. He will really watch a cow. He has been used the last two years at the auction barn and to work cattle. You can rope anything on him with no issues. He also has been ridden and packed in the Montana mountains and is super easy to shoe, hauls well and backs out of a trailer. He has no buck at all, is gentle enough that anyone can ride him but is plenty of horse to get any job done. In training with Levi Walchuk.
