NOTES: I can't say enough good things about this horse. He was cow horsed on as a 3-year-old and has since been in rope horse training with Colby Lovell. He is as talented as they come for a young rope horse and as a heel horse. Recently has been started in the heading and is showing his talent there, also. He is gentle enough for just about anyone to go in any direction with. He has a good handle and good to ride outside. Will be shown in the team roping preview. 5-Panel N/N.

NOTES: "Frosty" has the most captivating personality! We cannot put into words how much of a people-horse he is. On his back, he is forgiving, kind, simple and easy to ride, going as slow or fast as the rider asks. Whatever the task at hand, he'll be there ready to win in the show pen, brand on the ranch, cruise the mountainside trails or handle a steer in the roping pen. A finished bridle horse, he willfully guides, lopes beautiful cadenced circles, has a flawless lead change, will plus his spins as well as his stops. He has a ton of natural cow, reads one as well, has the foot speed and is never up in the bridle. Water crossing, bridges, bicycles, wild game, crowds, strollers do not phase him. Be sure to watch his bareback and bridle-less video; it will speak for his talent. A fun head and heel horse with all the bells and whistles, very showy in the pen. You name it we have done it aboard "Frosty!"

This is the horse to grab when you have a job to get done. As a bonus, he's shapely and colorful. Will be shown in the reining/riding and team roping previews.

PERFORMANCE RECORD: 1 AQHA VRH ranch riding (Level 3) open point.
NOTES: "Dr Seuss" is a one-in-a-million gelding with looks, ability, personality and friendly temperament that makes him the barn favorite. Handy enough for a top hand to appreciate and kind-hearted enough to build the confidence of a more novice rider, he's worked the big country on ranches in Texas, Wyoming and New Mexico. He's seen all kinds of different country, working cattle and will take good care of his rider in any sort of terrain. Water, tarps, crazy dogs, flags, he's seen it all. Quiet and easy to ride with a fancy handle and all the buttons, he'll willingly go all day through rough country with a smooth, ground-covering walk. He moves off your leg, soft in the face and rides on a loose rein with a pretty headset. A solid team roping horse, fancy enough to show in ranch horse classes and cowy enough to be a top-level sorting or penning horse. He doesn't care if you ride daily or a couple of times a month, he'll show up at the gate and ride off the same and he's easy to handle no matter what's being done with him. Will be shown in the team roping preview.

We've been roping on him for the last couple of years and hauled him to several jackpots, including the Riata Buckle. As we do all of our horses, we heel on them first, then head on them. Very trained in the arena where he will lope collected circles, rides off your seat and leg pressure, has a good stop and a nice turn around. Started in heading on the dummy and slow cattle, and he is showing a lot of promise. Very broke to ride outside and used for every aspect of ranch work, he has been used to sort, brand and gather cattle, and he takes everything in stride. "Fairway" has a very kind and willing disposition and is calm and confident down the trail, where he will cross any obstacle in his path and take care of his rider. NOTES: "Captain" is the cutest brown gelding and is perfectly sized to fit an array of riders. An excellent gelding to have if you're looking for versatility. He has a neat demeanor about him, is patient, kind, very fluid and smooth to sit and ride all day. His ranch credentials make him very fun to go out on a simple trail ride or on some of the toughest terrain in the U.S. A head horse, absolutely perfect in the box, can break and run to cattle in a great position with ease and has a snappy face. He's also been heeled on. He gets along well with other horses while turned out or quiet as a church mouse in his stall. Great ground manners and will stand tied quietly. A great all-around gelding!

NOTES: "Cayman Jack" stands 15 hands and is a phenomenal athlete who deserves to be shown. His career so far has consisted of ranch and feed yard chores such as shipping, gathering, doctoring sick cattle and dragging calves. He has a lot of heart, try and ride. This loud-colored gelding can really turn around, has a huge stop and all the run and cow you could want. We have steer stopped on him, and he knows all the cow horse maneuvers. Circles well, has easy lead changes and a really cool extended trot. Stays quiet in and out of the pen, does well under pressure and always has a really good mind. Crosses water, downed timber, will get through brush and extremely rough terrain with no qualms. Whether you would like to finish one out as a rope horse or as a show horse "Cayman Jack" will be the perfect winner. He is the point-and-go type, super light and nonsense free.

NOTES: "Benny" is a super cute gelding that rides extremely well and is gentle to boot! Lopes low and slow, has a correct lead change and is very soft and easy to pilot. He turns around how one is supposed to, will watch a cow and is fun to sort on. He's been ridden outside the arena as well and is handy to dactor, brand and ship on. Back him into the heel side and go win some money. He's been breakaway roped on as well and is ready to haul. Gentle enough for the young ones to ride and always takes care of his passengers, he would be a great horse to teach a kid the ins and outs of the show pen as well. He shines in any situation you put him in.

NOTES: "Zorro" turns heads with his stunning looks and easy-going temperament. Very experienced in all aspects of feedlot and ranch work, he is well-broke, patient and versatile enough for any job. The whole family can enjoy showing him in ranch horse, sorting, team penning or riding trails. "Zorro" is quiet in the box and scores very well on either side. Talented enough for an open roper and user-friendly enough for a beginner, he gets to steers quickly, rates off well, has a snappy face and a great stop. He's seen it all: ATVs, crazy dogs, wild kids, tarps, flags, tractors, etc. Confident and willing when you ride out alone, take him over mountains, through water, in the rocks, as he is surefooted and trustworthy. More whoa than go, has beautiful transitions and exceptionally smooth gaits. Soft in the face, moves readily off your leg and is easy to ride. Stands 15.1 and weighs 1,250. Fabulous ground manners make him so easy to be around. A gentleman to clip, bath, shoe and haul, he's an easy keeper that rides off quietly whether he's had a week's vacation or been ridden daily. Will be shown in the team roping preview.

NOTES: "Blue Duck" is a unique-colored gray gelding that stands 15.1 and is very broke to ride in and out of the arena. Finished on the head and heel ends and also started in breakaway, in heading he runs very flat, has a lot of rate with a good move in the corner and is smooth across the pen. He is just as solid on the heel side where he will run flat, is very honest on the corner and stops square. Very trained in the arena where he lopes collected circles with nice departures, a good turn around and a very nice stop. He always stays up underneath himself and takes care of his rider. Ridden extensively outside and on the ranch for every aspect of ranch work, he's very confident down the trail where he will cross any obstacle in his path. A fun horse to ride with a kind disposition, super versatile and willing to please. Will be shown in the barrel horse and team roping preview.
