NOTES: We've enjoyed owning "Mona Lisa" since she was a yearling. This talented mare carries herself with a rare elegance that matches her fancy looks. "Mona Lisa" is a perfect representative of her championship bloodlines, bred for versatility and ability. She's incredibly quick footed and cats around with a lot of style. Exceptionally well broke, making a standout rope horse. She is quiet in the box, breaks flat, flies down the pen, really cows to a steer and finishes with a beautiful stop. She has seen a lot outside miles, sure footed and sensible through the roughest terrain. She has experienced the rugged mountains of New Mexico, elk hunting. "Mona Lisa" is patterned on the barrels and has been hauled to several races and team ropings to see the sights of town. Easy to shoe, clip and bathe. She enjoys the attention and always wants to please. She fits right in with the geldings. This beautiful mare is ready to go in the show pen (reining or cow horse), roping arena or ranch, she has a solid foundation that will enable her to be successful in whatever discipline you choose. NOTES: "Slick" might be the biggest, prettiest, almost chocolate palomino gelding we have come across! He is that horse that everyone wants to own so their family has a safe reliable ride whenever they want. Stands 15.1 hands and has a big sloping hip, a kind eye, a pretty neck and shoulder. He has been ridden in a feed yard and used to pony colts his whole career. He has occasionally been to parades and ridden down in the canyons. "Slick" has also been used as a lesson horse for some younger kids. He is as honest as he is pretty, there are no tricks or guesswork to him. He is the same gentleman no matter if you ride him once a week or once a year! He has a solid ranching background and it reflects in his manners and his riding style. He is one handed broke and has a big stop. Stout to the horn, he is willing to try anything you ask of him. He is a true joy to have around and a barn favorite!
